Allied Universal Hosts Security Conference in Columbus

Columbus, OH – September 6, 2016 – Allied Universal, a leading facility services company and the largest security provider in North America with over 140,000 employees, will host a Central Ohio Security Conference on Tuesday, September 27, 2016. The conference will be from 7:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. at the School Employee Retirement System of Ohio, 300 East Broad Street in Columbus.

The conference will address access control best practices; suspicious packages and bomb threats; and drones as a security threat and asset. This is an opportunity for business and security leaders to learn from local experts with the DHS, Franklin County Sheriff's Office Bomb Squad, and SelectTech Geospatial.

Security and business professionals interested in attending the event must register in advance.

Media interested in attending this event are encouraged to RSVP to the press contact in this release.
